

For The Left, It's Take Down Trump

By CS Bennett

Every day, it seems to be playing out on our television monitors, iPhones, and the internet; the left going ballistic over the Trump presidency. Like many, even some on the right, Trump's win took them completely by surprise. The anger that festers beneath the surface is toxic and when it rears its head, it is outright dangerous. And forget what is trying to be portrayed as grassroots protest. There is very little about these gatherings that are organic, or as they say, innocent ground swells of resistance. These attacks, and affronts, against our republic, and the people's president, is anti-American. And it borders on anarchy when they turn to violence and mayhem.

So, who are the groups behind this organized culture of resistance? The advocacy groups involved are MoveOn.org, Organized Communities Against Deportations, Arab Resource & Organizing Center (AROC), Asian Americans Advancing Justice, Chicago Alliance Against Racist and Political Repression, local Black Lives Matter, and the nonprofit Make the Road New York. Oh, let's not forget the Democrat Party and George Soros.

Their plan is to block Trumps' agenda, weaken the republican support he has, and overtake the republicans in the upcoming 2018 midterm elections, and then take back Congress and the White House in 2020. They have had protests marches in every major city, to include, Chicago, San Francisco, Philadelphia, Boston, Newark, and Los Angeles, Detroit, Miami and Memphis. And, of course, there is Washington DC. And they will continue to. Our job is to see that this does not happen.

My advice to republicans is not to get complacent, or over-confident. We, as a political force, and movement, must remain vigilant. Let the left show off their rear ends. It will only bring more sane people to our side. And while they are trying to effect change protesting on the streets of America, let us quietly continue to do our protesting at the ballot box where it counts. We can win this in 2018...we must.
